Raiders of the Lost Arc

"NIGHT TRADITION"

Although this traditional campfire did not end with Kumbaya, the night as usual was still a blast. The campfire started with some new cool campfire songs. Some of the best vocals included the LaCoste twins, Jeannie Cratty's song, and Junior Birdman (as usual) by the good Reverend Terry Martinson. Our cabin's personal favorite was the "special birthday song" dedicated to Katelin Elizabeth by Dave Krall. Later on that night, Michelle Harrison did an exceptional job telling the bedtime story to the good little boy-Bubba Harrison. Overall, the highlight of this campfire was when new comer Kevin O'Hara (or is it Chip or Dale?) played the "What you put on last game?" Because Matt Vearney was the "host with the most", and made this year's traditional campfire not so traditional. Thanks to all the staff for a great night!

*Cabin 6 strongly feels Matt Vearny is this year's best looking rookie! Thanks for the view!

MAVERICKS REVENGE

"Mavericks Revenge" run by Bubba Harrison, had something for everyone to do, from basketball skills run by Harry and Winger, to the nerve-racking brain teasers asked by Don. At the various activities cards were awarded for a campwide Poker Game. The people who ran the games made up their own rules. They also gave out cards for no reason. There were games such as tug-of-war, soccer, and even children games. You could also buy or trade cards, at the Trading Post. The campers were split into teams by morning groups and assigned a color. At certain times the leaders had to try to make poker hands. They also had vegas cards for extra points. At the end - the orange team won and got the MILLION DOLLAR PRIZE!

The best way to cheer yourself up is to try to cheer up somebody else.

-Mark Twain

HOLLYWOOD SQUARES

Hollywood Squares Sunday night was a BLAST! The setup of the whole game was very realistic. Even though there was little room to move around people still got into it, but the Junior High was a little shy. The cross-dressing of the characters added on a special twist to the game. The costumes were great and the comedy was nonstop. Eileen White played an excellent Charo and always had something to say, Terry Steele made a great Joan Rivers, we could hardly tell him apart from the real Joan. All of the characters did a great job and kept the comedy going. Peter Jon Ripley did an excellent job at organizing the game, Tom Remsen and crew also worked very hard at night, building the three story set. Overall, the game was great and they did a great job

-Sully

**"Radical, it was cool!"

-RIP

*"It was intellectually challenging and loads of fun."

-Anne Francis

*"I've never been to a tavern before and been served."

-Jen LoPorto

**"It was better than CATS. I'm going to do it again."

-Ellen Black (aka Eileen White)

**"Thumbs up!"

-Katelyn Robie

**"I swear I saw the ark riding on broomstick."

-Kenny Romig

**"I found a comandment but I know that THOU SHALL NOT STEAL, so I left it."

-Josh Abel

"I love the smelly balls (prizes)!"

-Alicia Gray

Cabin #8 Sr. High, thanx for not making Mow look like a pig. The late night talks were great, trip...over the board. I can play with the lip stuff, can you play with the lip stuff? NO! We'll miss you Sr. High cabin #5, love cabin #8. Its been fun Cabin #3!, Love Cabin #8. BOING

OUT OF THIS WORLD

Star Wars

GO WHERE I SEND THEE

Sunday night's chapel service was led by First Cong Braintree. Bob Gohl spoke about making a difference in camper's lives. The Stone Cutter story told us to be ourselves, not wanting to be other things. We learned that love isn't always easy. Even though love hurts sometimes, it's a splendid thing. "All I Need To Know I Learned In Kindergarten", told us that lots of things we learn when we're young can still be used today.

Monday's chapel service was led by First Church Weymouth. Elizabeth inspired us to not think about what we don't have, but to realize that we have plenty. Glenn led us in the benediction song of "Children Go Where I Send Thee." Other First Church members read prayers.

SUPER SLOPPY DOUBLE DARE

A Messy Situation

On Tuesday, the afternoon program was Super Sloppy Double Dare. This fun filled day was brought to us with much effort of TerriHanson. Cabin 6 (Jr. High) thought the nastiest events included jello games, the flour life savers, and of course the treasure chest (filled with many great surprises. Although many enjoyed the rookie hair salon, they thought that steel the bacon game was the best event of all. Congratulations to Terri and all of her helpers on a Super Sloppy Day!

What Character Would You Want To Be In Star Wars and Why?

Our cabin (#11) decided to answer this question with an exclusive survey. Replies ranged from "that hairy guy" to "the smoking robot." Darth Vader was popular. Wouldn't you want to be the villian with the golden voice? Other people liked Han Solo (the funny one) and Obi-Wan-Kenobie (the powerful one). The cabin favorite was Princess Leah, she's the only female, beautiful, lovely and she has awesome hair!

YARD WORK AT THE MONSTER MASH

Being lame is lame, and the Monster Mash was definitely not that. Dweebies and wastoids may not have enjoyed this, but Sr. High Cabin #2 (The Deuce) definitely did. All eleven deuces went yard in their mash get-ups. Even though moshing was broken up by Relentless displays of authority, the mob didn't get down. To the mash came the mighty walrus, decked in the slightest of his walrus garb. "AUHRR" belched the walrus, as he passed by the hands of the moshers in the mighty crowd surf. Waldos were acing people out as D.J. Tom R. spun merry melodies like his name was Bugs Bunny. The usual, "Brown Eyed Girl", "Paradise by the Dashboard Lights", "Y.M.C.A.", and "The Electric Slide" were featured, but "Girls", "Beat It", and "Come on Feel the Noise" stole the show. Tony D. looked way different on T.V. as he rolled into "The Zone." It all wound down as "Stairway to Heaven" ended the night. Even though the dance was over, the good feelings continued as Elizabeth belted out one DEEP Vesper Service. In closing, "Broken hearts are lame, STAYING TOGETHER RULES "1995".

Love the Deuces

What About Bob

MAD LIZ LIBS

The cabin skits tonight were _____ (adjective).
Cabin _____ (number) rocked the _____ (noun).
They all boogied down like a _____ (camp staff member) unlike that of a _____ (rookie name). The Christian Brothers did a _____ (adjective) version of Bob Gohl's wedding. K. Verney gave birth to a _____ (noun). Cabin 8 Jr. High Girls
_____ (verb(ed)) the crowd with their _____ (adjective) interpretation of staff members. 1-800-KINGSMONT showed us that playing that _____ (negative noun) music isn't the real music we jam to. Christian Rock _____ (verb (ed)) the crowd with their new found _____ (religious adjective) style. So long farewell twist and _____ (exclamation).
Thriller talk about _____ (adjective) memories.
The highlight of the evening according to the Junior High Boys was that the Senior High Girls cabin 13 has sexy _____ (bodypart).

The cabin skits were great! They were short, sweet, and funny. It seemed like everyone worked hard and got really into it. I think thats terrific. - MADLIZ

"LIGHTS OUT"

When vespers are over
And its time to go
Up to the cabins we all flow
We get in our beds
All snugg and tight
Ready to sleep and dream
for the night

Were quiet for a minute
But then we start to shout
And that's when George screams
"LIGHTS OUT!"

Lights out, shmites out,
- WE HATE LIGHTS OUT!!

What sunshine is to flowers, smiles are
to humanity.
-Joseph Addison

ODE TO THE CAMP FOOD

The food at Kingsmont taste like heaven,
At least thats the report from Cabin seven.
To the chicken salad, Write a ballad.
Here's some wonderful shepards pie, We can't deny, But the chicken pot pie makes us want to cry.
The aftertaste makes our stomachs reply.
All in all - We usually end up in a bathroom stall.

ROOKIE - BBB

Matt Belmonte was a five year camper here at Kingsmont, and now he's a rookie. He goes to works in Braintree at St. Colette Day School for special need students. His favorite part of camp as a camper was getting off the bus and walking to the council circle. Now his favorite part is getting involved in planning activites. The biggest change for him is the responsibility to the campers and when Matt got the call that he was going to be a counselor he was overwhelmed with joy, and was getting into the shower.

Cut off from our everyday grind, away from the outside world, together we live as our own community. We give so much of ourselves that we can live simply and be truly happy. All that is necessary to have the best week of the year is music, friendship, God, faith, food, hot water, (well, not exactly), and a campfire: a place to gather around for warmth, whether from the flame or from the loving words or embrace of another.

If life could only be so simple, so good...If the world stopped everything for a few minutes of meditation and thoughts like our morning watch, if we could all take an hour out of our day, with our peers, to vent, to share and to discuss, as with morning group, if only everyone could broaden their horizons as we do with daily interest groups, if only everybody could take the stage and receive unconditional applause, if only everyone took time to sing and pray each day together; the world would be a better place. As it stands now we can only feel lucky. At least after a week of a cure-all known as CAMP we can each be better people. And as long as that happens the institution and spirit of our CAMP will never die.

Brian Harrison

Vespers

Vespers is a very important part of our week at Camp Kingsmont, it remains a favorite to all. The reason we like it is because it cools us down, after coming back from a dance or other activity. It gives us a chance to relax for a little bit, but most important is that it refreshes our mind about why we are here. Without vespers, we would probably not really think about how fortunate we are to be here.

ROOKIE?

What's a Rookie?

When asked what it was like being a "rookie", Harry LaCoste said that it was great. He really enjoys helping to plan special events, and watching the campers enjoy them. He also commented that he loves all of the senior staff. Fortunately, he doesn't mind being a referred to as a "rookie", and he takes all of the jokes in good humor. Harry also mentioned that he does not plan to go Pro with his juggling, but it is still a hobby. He does enjoy teaching people how to juggle. Long live Harry LaCoste!

Maureen is a six year camper. Maureen enjoys "rookie" activities, such as; being dumped on by Veteran Counselors and picking up trash during meals. Maureen said that she enjoyed her transition from camper to counselor and looks forward to many more years as a Counselor.

OUR FIRST ROOKIE

Assuming that we are all Christians at camp, we are gathered here with at least one thing in common - we all believe in Jesus Christ. I have come to the conclusion that the big JC really is what camp is all about. When he walked this earth, Jesus spoke about the kingdom of God, a utopian society that he tried to get started while he was here. I think that Camp Kingsmont does a pretty great job following Jesus' lead.

Jesus loved all creatures great and small, even rookies, so I hear. He fed the hungry, healed the sick, and clothed the naked. We give our neighbors seconds on jello night, have a wonderful nurse, and let the boys wear our dresses.

He probably skipped a shower or two, figuring the water pressure in first century Palestine is roughly equal to that of Camp Kingsmont.

Jesus and his friends wore cool sandals.

I'm willing to bet that when he invited outcasts to his dinner table, Jesus didn't let the beggars save seats just in case one of the prostitutes felt left out. (But I couldn't bet because we've adapted his "no gambling in God's house" rule to include camp.)

We can all relate to the Jesus that was mocked by many of his contemporaries about his idea of fun. (You go to CHURCH camp!???)

His goals included peace, love, fellowship, harmony, unity, equality...for everyone! - just like our goals here at Camp Kingsmont. He treated everyone like his brothers and sisters. Camp is one big happy family too.

So I think that camp is the kind of Kingdom Jesus wanted. Everywhere you look, there is kindness and caring, everyone always trying to make everyone else happy, and nobody is any less important than anybody else. Originality is encouraged and appreciated; there is a place for everyone. And I don't know anyother place where I have seen so may smiles on so many faces, for so many diffrent reasons. Together, we have a little peace of heaven on earth.

Sadly, Jesus was cruelly persecuted, humiliated, and tortured publically for challenging the status quo. Perhaps that makes Jesus Christ our very first rookie.

Life's Gift of Love

If people like me
didn't know people like you,
Life would lose its meaning and its richness, too.
For the friends that we make
and life's gift of love,
And I think friends are sent right from heaven above.
And thinking of you somehow makes me feel
That God is love
and He's very real.

Junir High Camp Out and About

Jr High Cabin 8 had not been to a handshake. So they went around the camp asking those who had what they thought of it to prepare themselves for the event themselves. Here are the responses...

Eric Soulia - "I love it!, I feel it is an intricate part of camp and I don't think we could have a full positive camp experience without it."

Missy Grassia - "I like getting to hug all those cute seniors!"

Maureen Galvin - "I like it because it gives you a chance too see everyone at camp."

Holly Hanson - "It gives everyone a chance to say good bye to everyone."

Dave Tamborella - "The chicks!"

Matt Verney - "It is a nice way of saying good bye for another year."

Karen Fricker - "Its sad because everyone cries."

A letter (to Rip) from Liz Mawn -Class of 1995

Dear Rip,
Top o' the mornin' to ya, fenchy! I'm sure by the time you get this letter, camp will almost be over. But I know how exciting it is to get mail at camp. I'm sorry I missed you on Saturday when everyone was going off to camp. It was very sad to see everyone go. I wish I was able to say good-bye to you in person, but this will have to do. I wanted to write to you and thank you for everything you have done for me. My time in Fellowship and knowing you have been some of the greatest times in my life. The friends I have made and become close with at Fellowship I will always keep - all because of you and youth group. We have had so many wonderful and fun times together. I could always look to you for some wise remark or joke about the whole Irish culture! But what can you expect from a damn Brit! I'm going to miss all of our joking around with each other. Please take care of yourself. I love you and I will see you when I come home. Good-bye!!

Love your favorite Harp,

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Sitting here again on the night of the last dance I settle in to write my yearly letter. It has been a very different week than I have ever had at this wonderful place. It is now the end of my thirteenth year and each one of those years I become more and more sure of my faith. My faith in the world, my faith in others and my faith in the path that my life must go. This place IS my faith! You all have given me this strength, and what a powerful and profound gift it is! It pulls me through times that I feel weak or disheartened, and glides along beside me when I'm having the time of my life. "Footsteps in the Sand" finally has a meaning for me. You don't have to attach any "labels" to your beliefs, just know that the force behind them lives within us all and all around us.

I go through the year wondering what I have given back to you, and then out of the blue it hits me and it all makes sense. It only takes a few words, but you let me know in just seconds that it is all worth while. I don't see my life without this camp experience in it for many years to come. If so, it would be like losing and arm or an ear - or even worse - a huge piece of my faith and being. I know that God has this little world of Kingsmont in plan for me for many reasons. You prove that to me time and time again!

There are a few very simple rules that I follow in life; first is to be true to myself, the second is not to harm others, the third is to hold my family and friends close to my heart and not let go, and lastly is to educate others about these rules. I hope that I have done that for you! Remember that everything you need to know in life - you learned in Kindergarten. The rules are that simple!

On a personal note - To every one of the kids at 1st Cong Youth Group - thanks for being such wonderful young people! You give such unconditional love that it astounds me. You have enriched mine and Mark's life much more than you will ever know! Seniors - I will miss you emencly, but as Missy has so eloquently put it, "We're heading to a whole new level." I look forward to seeing you there! Good luck to all of you in school and write me in the happy times as well as the not so.

We move through life at such a pace that sometimes we stray, but if it is strong, your faith will always lead you in the right direction. All I ask, as I ask every year, is to carry the CAMP SPIRIT with you wherever you may go. It travels well and is a wonderfully contagious feeling.

Until next year.....

Peter Jon
